PRODUCER INFORMATION
VINEYARD

Bolney Wine Estate is one of the longest established English vineyards in the heart of Sussex.

It all started back in 1972 as Bookers Vineyard, with three acres of vines. Since then they have grown to 39 acres with a state-of-the-art winery added in 2005. Samantha Linter, daughter of the founders, took over as Head Winemaker in the 1990's.

AWARDS

Bolney Wine Estate has won numerous international trophies and other awards with their sparkling English wines being particularly successful and winning gold medals.

In 2012, Bolney Wine Estate won UK Wine Producer of the Year in the International Wine and Spirit Competition and more recently recieved the Winery of the Year 2017 from the UK Wine Awards.

WINE MAKING NOTES
Half of the hand-picked Pinot Gris grapes were crush-destemmed, and the remaining half were whole-bunch pressed. The juice underwent cool fermentation in stainless steel tanks for approximately 14 days, using yeast strains selected to maximise the floral and fruity aromas.
