TASTING NOTE

Produced using 96 year old Grenache vines of low yield and grapes of great purity. The mid-palate is round with a creamy mouthfeel from ageing on the lees. The finish has length which is complex, crisp and balanced.

PRODUCER INFORMATION

Coralie is the first woman to take the destiny of the family estate for 9 generations. On this area of 60 hectares all major Rhone varietals are represented and are farmed organically, the Domaine produces Châteauneuf du Pape, Cotes du Rhone Villages and Côtes du Rhône.

On this property the average age of the vines is 55 years. In addition to the evocation an exceptional terroir, the Galevan name also symbolizes the balance between expertise and creative freedom.
